DISCLAIMER

Academic Section, IIT Bombay does not encourage that students should override registration rule exceptions. Students should be aware that they are exercising the 'registration rule exception override' on thier own free will. The override facility has only been made available by the academic office to provide data-capture at source. Students should be aware that 'registration rule exception override' must necessarily be endorsed by the competent authority on a printed document generated through the online registration interface. Unless duly signed document is submitted to the Academic office at IIT Bombay, the course registration shall not be deemed as complete.

Certificate to be signed by the student

1. I hereby certify that I have read and understood the disclaimer regarding 'registration rule exception override', printed on this interface.
2. I hereby declare that I shall not hold IIT Bombay responsible for any academic performance degradation, or any other eventuality arising out of my excercising the 'registration rule exception override' option for the registration of academic courses.
3. I understand that the 'registration rule exception override' is not automatic, and that the 'registration rule exception override' is provisional, unless a document where the exception override has been approved and endorsed by the competent authority(where the competent authority for each type of registration rule exception override is defined by the academic office) to that effect, is submitted by me to the academic office.
4. I understand that such a printable document shall be made available by the online registration interface.
5. I hereby accept that if I do not submit the duly signed(by the competent authority) 'registration rule exception override' document, my registration for the said course shall be cancelled by the academic office.
6. I hereby understand and accept that if I submit forged or fraudulent "registration rule exception override' document, my academic registration for all the courses shall be cancelled by the academic office, IIT Bombay.
